

Ubiquitous Language

Glossary

Term	Description
Movie	A data record, that contains at least a title and description variable.
Recommendation	On movie data record, represented by its title. Most of the time, a recommendation request will be answered with a set containing multiple different recommendations.
Label	The identifier for a movie. This can be the title or a unique id.
Target	The textual description of a movie. This is the basis on which the similarity to other movies gets calculated.
User	Every person that's able to access the recommender system by visiting the website.
Premium user	A user that acquired an account and can therefore use additional services (like rating his recommendations or saving preferences).
Admin	A user with additional rights, that allows him to alter data in the database or manually retrain the model).